“ My condolence goes out to the family. Mr. Crawford was one of the pillar of the church and a great role model for me and a lot of other young males at church. He was always Sunday clean, respectful, and worked in the church.

My prayers are with the family!!!

“ I always took a minute( while in town) to stop by and visit with Mr. Crawford, when I went to see my sister and her family, who lived a few houses down. I would end of visiting with him for hours, he and his family. We talked about many things or events that was happening around the world and locally. Mr Crawford, was the most kind and loving father, grandfather and uncle to all who met him. I loved to go back and tell my nephew and his cousin what a good visit I had with his grandfather. I will miss those visits with him and will always remember his smile, laughter and kind spirit. All those years, I never seen or heard him talk bad about anyone. Everytime I seen him he was always upbeat. His light would shine and his love was always christlike. To the family, Mr Crawford has received his golden wings. His work down here is finish. He is now resting at his heavenly home. One day we will rejoice with him. So long, Mr. Crawford until we meet again. Carolyn Cole Lawson
