“ Mrs Eva Mae was like a 2nd mom to me. The first time I met her 30+ years ago she opened up her home and love to me. To the entire Wilson Family she will be truly missed. Remember the good memories of her until you meet again. Love y'all Barbara ❤️

“ Grandma,

I love you, and miss you.

You always showed me how to be strong, even when I felt like I was weak.

Grandma, your hugs, smiles, and I love you's will always be felt and remembered.

Grandma, every year for my birthday, you would cook me your famous Caramel cake; until you couldn't make me the cake anymore. Somehow, you kept giving me birthday cards until, you couldn't give me birthday cards anymore.

One thing that you will always give me is your love, Grandma.

The last time I heard your voice, is when I said to you, “see you later Alligator; then you said, afterwhile Crocodile”.

I am going to miss those words.

When I saw you, on Valentines Day, I could still feel your love.

Grandma, I didn't know a few days later, you would be gone to Heaven to be with Your Heavenly King.

I love and miss you Grandma.

Rest in love and peace.

Your Grand-daughter, Anita Wilson

“ Aunt Eva I will truly miss you. You were my giggling partner, the one who kept me updated on all the family, and so much more. I have pics of you holding each of my kids as babies, pics of our visits, and you were even in my wedding. You told me a few years ago this day would come, you joked about it and we laughed, but I still wasn't ready. I will miss our talks and our bond as Auntie and Niece. I Love You, ALWAYS! -Your Niece Felisha Granberry-
