

Frankie Lee Malone

February 20, 1948 - December 21, 2019

Saturday, December 21, 2019 at Crestpark Retirement Inn, Frankie Lee Jackson Malone closed her eyes for a much needed rest. Her soul flighted from this world of pain, sorrow and sin to a place of eternal rest.

Frankie was born February 20, 1948 to the late Jeannie Mae Whittier Jackson and Frank Jackson in Edmondson, AR. She accepted Christ at an early age at Friendship Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Herman Brekenridge. She was a faithful member and served as the church pianist for many years. Frankie graduated from Lincoln High School in Forrest City, AR in 1966. She moved for a brief time to Chicago, IL. Once she returned to Arkansas she worked at Warwick Electronics which later became Sanyo Manufacturing Co. She attended Crowley's Ridge Vocational Technical School where she received a nursing degree as a Licensed Practical Nurse. She worked at various hospitals and nursing homes until her health failed.

She married Bobby T. Malone and to this union four sons were born.

She was preceded in death by two sons; Gregory Allen Malone, Derrick Thomas Malone and their father Bobby T. Malone.

She leaves to cherish her memories; (2) sons Russell Malone of Madison, AR. and Marty Malone of Jonesboro, AR; (4) sisters; Lorece Hill, Deborah Jackson, Patricia Jameson all of Heth, AR and Doris Richardson of New Albany, NY, (5) brothers; Eddie (Arlene) Jackson, Henry Jackson, Herman Jackson, Kerry Jackson and Clinner Jackson all of Heth, AR.; (6) grandchildren, (11) great grandchildren, one Uncle James (Pearline) Whittier of Chicago , IL and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.
