

James Green Millard

August 11, 1944 - September 22, 2024

James E Millard was born August 11, 1944, to Elizabeth Newsom and Willie E. Millard in Biscoe

Arkansas. While still an infant James' Mother married Robert Lee Green and the family later moved to Colt, Arkansas and then to Forrest City, Arkansas. James was known by many as “James Green”.

James professed a hope in Christ at an early age at the Rising Sun M.B. Church, Forrest City, Arkansas. Over the years James continued his relationship with his church until his passing.

James attended Lincoln High School and later lived in St. Louis, Missouri and in East Chicago,

Indiana. Upon moving back to Forrest City, he met and married the lovely Emogene Reeves on August 20, 1966.

James was employed by Gibson's Meat Company before he began his tenure at Yale

Manufacturing in Forrest City, where he as a Union Steward. James also officiated basketball games for Lincoln Junior and Senior High Schools, was a carpet installer, funeral director and an avid fisherman.

James leaves to cherish his memories: Daughters, Pattie (Eddie) Miller, Hannah Dozier, Cecelia

Gatling and Audra May. Son: Rodney Sain. Siblings: Carolyn (Timothy) Michael; Linda (Bobby)

Johnson; Barbara (Gregory) Chavis; Elaine (Eric) Gantt; Gloria (Douglas) Padgett, Gwendolyn

(Leonard) Emmons, Shirely DeLong, Daisy (Charles) Lovell, Mary Millard, Pauline (Melvin)

Evans.

Curtis (Kimberly) Green, Ronnie Green, E. Anthony Green, Emitt (Linda) Millard, and Robert

Millard.

10 grandchildren, 14 great grandchildren, 2 Great great grandchildren. Aunts: Dorothy Edwards and Judy Newsom. And a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

James was preceded in death by his wife, Emogene Millard; his parents, grandparents, his daughter Wilma J. Hull; sister Deborah Anderson and brothers, Leodis Green and Willie L.

Millard.

To the family of James Green from the class of 1962
How good it is to remember
And to always be aware
That God is watching over you
Because you're in His care.
